Enthusiasm Is Shown for College Hiway

Meeting in weekly session at La Mesa Golf and Country Club Tuesday noon the Lemon Grove Business Men's Association, by unanimous vote, pledged their active support of the proposed College Avenue extension, appointing a committee to circulate petitions urging prompt action by the Board of Supervisors.

Principal speaker was Lorin W. Deewall, of the San Diego County Planning Commission. Mr. Deewall explained that he had met with a group of Lemon Grove citizens back in 1935 to discuss city planning in general. Meetings were held in the homes of interested citizens, he explained, with only lukewarm interest.

In 1940, Lemon Grove again took up the question of community planning, and they finally got a zoning plan, then a building code, Mr. Deewall said.

"And 35 communities in the county followed the lead of Lemon Grove in adopting similar codes. You have to have a plan for orderly development and this applies no matter how large or small a place may be."

"We had thousands of people out here during the war, and if we have a well planned place to live in, they will find their way back here."

Referring to the College Avenue development, Mr. Deewall exhibited on the walls several large maps and stated that as a matter of fact the project had been started some ten years ago. "The county now has a deed to the roads and all that remains is to bring the road to Lemon Grove. And work on that part of the project could start tomorrow if you want it." To give you an idea of the overall project and to show its immense importance to Lemon Grove, here are the facts Mr. Deewall went on:

COLLEGE AVENUE EXTENSION SOUTHERLY TO DEVELOP A NORTH AND SOUTH MAJOR ROUTE IN OUR METROPOLITAN AREA

The metropolitan district of San Diego County is pretty well served with east and west highway routes. Beginning on the north, we have Mission Valley and Alvarado Canyon Extension to U. S. 80 at La Mesa; U. S. 80, University Avenue to La Mesa, Broadway Extension to Lemon Grove, Imperial Avenue through Encanto, Market Street and Jamacha Road, 8th St., National City.

All of these routes have an intersection with our proposed Belt Route, beginning at U. S. 101, Old Town, up Mission Valley, Alvarado Canyon, thence southerly through La Mesa, along the Sweetwater Road to Bonita, thence westerly to connect with U. S. 101 south of National City.

"This Belt Route, as described, will be an important circulating route for traffic designated to areas outside of the central portion of the city. In other words, traffic from the east can intersect this Belt Route, either go north or south, and will not be required to go into the congested areas to reach the northerly and

"Within the area surrounded by the Belt Route, there are not sufficient number of north and south connecting routes. At present we have the Cabrillo Freeway from the central portion of the town northerly, proposed Wabash Freeway across town route. We also have Euclid Avenue and Fairmont Extension, but

Large Crowd Hear Campfire Program Told

Lemon Grove men and women in all walks of life were given a detailed account of the activities of the Campfire Girls organization at a largely attended luncheon meeting at the Lemon Grove Community Congregational Church on Wednesday of this week.

The meeting was sponsored by the leaders of the Campfire Girls organization in this area and was in the nature of a detailed report on the program of work carried on by the various committees. Principal speakers were men high in the business activities of San Diego who stated that their enthusiastic support of the Campfire organization was based on their intimate knowledge of the worthwhile job the Campfire Girls carry on. Numerous local men and women gave their endorsement of the group and those in charge expressed sincere appreciation of the sympathetic support from this vicinity.

The meeting was opened with an invocation by Rev. Dan Apra, pastor of the Lemon Grove Congregational Church. A brief musical program with vocal selections by Miss Butler and accompaniment by Miss Sonka was roundly applauded.

Mrs. Van Gilse introduced Mrs. Juanita Close, who presided at the meeting explaining that Mrs. Close had devoted many years to the Campfire Girls.

W. E. Bonham, president of the Area Council of the Campfire Girls praised the work of Campfire and suggested to the men of the vicinity that they would find real places of service if they would align themselves with the organization in the various capacities where they could render much needed service.

Treasurer of the Area Council and member of the Finance Committee, Mr. Frazer, San Diego banker referred to the great value of the camping activities and other work of service which the Campfire Girls engage in throughout the year.

Mrs. Close then introduced for a brief report, Miss Dorothy Rapson of San Diego, a staff field worker. Miss Rapson gave an interesting outline of the map

TO VISIT IN AKRON

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Glena, 3710 Costabella Street, left today by automobile for Akron, New York, their former home. Mr. and Mrs. Glena have made their home in California since 1904 and have been residents of Lemon Grove since 1935.

George White Appointed First Justice

George B. White was receiving congratulations today upon his appointment as first Justice of the Peace of the newly created Homeland Township. The appointment was made Tuesday upon unanimous action of the San Diego County supervisors, effective October first.

Mr. White took a prominent part in the movement to create the new Township, and his appointment as its first Justice was urged in a petition signed by 1200 local residents of all walks of life and a number of civic organizations including the local Chamber of Commerce.

The new Court in Lemon Grove will be housed in the Sonoma building on Main Street and will start functioning October first. The deputy sheriff and constable of Lemon Grove will have offices in the same building.

Mr. White was born in Missouri and has been a resident of California for the past 26 years and of Lemon Grove eight years. He is married and he and his wife, Maude, make their home on Central Avenue. They have a daughter Mrs. J. E. Sanders, whose husband is associated with Mr. White in the Lemon Grove Hardware store on Main Street. Mr. Sanders is manager of the store.

Mr. White was for many years engaged in the Real Estate business in San Diego, having an office on El Cajon Boulevard. In 1941 he served as secretary-manager of the War Housing Commission office at the Civic Center in San Diego. He was chairman of the committee which drew up the first building and zoning code in Lemon Grove. The code attracted the attention of 34 other districts in the county which have since adopted it as their own.

When interviewed by a reporter, Mr. White said with his characteristic smile, "Now don't say too much about it." When asked his age, he replied with a chuckle, "I don't mind telling it. I am 67 years old."

The new Justice of the Peace has the good wishes of his many friends in Lemon Grove.

County Supervisor Dave Bird called on the new Justice yesterday to extend congratulations.

Shopping Center Halts Free Movies 'Til Next Summer

Ray Adelfinger, owner of the Shopping Center, who has been giving the folks of Lemon Grove a free moving picture show every Wednesday night, on the big parking lot next to his market, has announced that these movies will be discontinued as of September 15. Mr. Adelfinger states that because of the starting of school and the cool evenings at this time of the year, he thinks it best not to put on any more shows.

The Shopping Center has been rendering quite a public service to Lemon Grove by giving these free shows every Wednesday night throughout the summer. Knowing that most parents would not let their children go to regular show houses because of the polio scare, they have gone to considerable expense to enable the children to see a full length feature and cartoon out in the open air.

The shows were well attended by both children and adults. Some evenings as many as a thousand people viewed the show. Mr. Adelfinger said he will

New School Bus Schedule Worked Out

As you well know, the following bus schedule has to be tentative. It will be refined after we know where the children are living and how many we have to transport.

The school is vitally concerned about the safety of your child, that he arrives at school on time, and is returned to his home promptly after dismissal.

However, we ask your cooperation during the first week or two when bus time schedules are not met.

Please do not stop the drivers to discuss the schedule. This only delays them more. For all matters concerning the bus, call the school H6-3283, or H6-5754.

The bus may come through your district three times within an hour or so. Please do not insist that all children ride the first bus. In general, kindergarten children ride one bus, grades 1, 2, and 3 another, etc.

We also urge that children wait at the bus stop so there will be as little delay as possible.

In taking children home from school, they will be dropped where picked up.

Net earnings of the people of America, of California, are now below the 1941 level. "Ham and Eggs" are more of a luxury than ever, notwithstanding an increase of "purchasing power" from $72,607 million in 1939 to $195,195 million in 1947 — National figures.

Official U. S. statistics show that food costs of 1947 are equal to 85% of total personal incomes in 1939. Here are some representative consumer expenditure comparisons of 1939 and 1947:

	1939	1947	1939	1947
Food and tobacco	$21,072	$61,796	31.20	37.50
Clothing	8,299	22,606	12.30	13.72
Housing	8,940	14,429	13.25	8.76
Household operation	9,461	21,973	14.02	13.34
Medical care	3,386	7,415	5.02	4.50
Automotive	4,967	12,171	7.36	7.39
Recreation	3,446	9,360	5.10	5.63
Durable goods	6,729	20,963	9.97	12.72
Nondurable goods	35,258	96,487	52.26	59.36
Services	25,479	47,305	37.76	28.71

An additional tax of 1.71% on these expenditures in 1947 would have equaled the total individual savings of the year. If 1947 housing cost, for example, had borne the same relationship to total expenditures in 1939, consumers in Los Angeles County would have spent an additional $362,918,000 for housing, or more than total individual savings.

Tax Talk by James O. Stevenson

Nuclear physicists have blasted the scientific "truths and laws" which we were taught about matter or substance just a few years ago. The "impenetrable" supersonic wall has been pierced by an airplane moving faster than sound. So, it does not follow that what has been will be again. The once proud Babylon now lies under Euphrates silt, but the city its people conquered, Jerusalem, is experiencing the birth pangs of new statehood. Progress and depression are but the variable pulsebeats of human life.

Economic cycles are like seasons. The difference between spring and autumn, summer and winter, is merely one of solar radiation due to a rhythmic change of the earth's position in relation the sun. The sun itself is subject to these spot disturbances are regularly quiet and active, and rhythmic changes observed as "sunspots". Like "Old Faithful" solar radiation varies accordingly. The Padre of the Rains, Father Rickard of Santa Clara University, based his weather predictions on sunspot observations.

High sunspot activity, like spring and summer sunshine, stimulates or over-stimulates life, growth, thought, action. Low sunspot activity is associated with a biological lessening of such forces. As appears below, lows are always followed by highs, and vice versa.

	Sunspot Index	Stock Index
1923 Low point of Cycle	5.8	$ 83.97
1928 High point of Cycle	122.1	122.06
1933 Low point of Cycle	5.7	30.84
1937 High point of Cycle	114.4	38.55
1944 Low point of Cycle	9.6	99.86
1948 Unusually high Cycle (est)	148.1	183.60

these routes are on an undesirable alignment and grade to warrant the classification of a major north and south traffic route.

"In regard to College Avenue Extension, the first portion of this road was built from El Cajon Blvd. or U. S. 80, northerly to the State College. The second portion, which is under construction, is from El Cajon Blvd. or U. S. 80, southerly along the easterly line of El Cerrito Heights, Unit No. 2, Map No. 2010, and extending southerly to University Avenue through College Avenue subdivision. It is proposed to continue the extension of this College Avenue from University Avenue southerly to connect with the County Road known as Road Survey No. 311. Road Survey No. 311 is a County Road from Broadway to the Radio Station.

"The proposed extension of College Avenue would continue southerly on Road Survey No. 311 to a point where the County Road turns westerly into the Naval Radio Station. From that point it will continue southerly and easterly to connect with Broadway Extension at the intersection of Broadway and Central Avenue. This intersection would be along the southerly line of the outdoor theatre. College Avenue would more or less parallel Massachusetts, but would be a mile or so west of Massachusetts.

"At present, it would go through undeveloped property which has a potential value for future residential district. College Avenue would not only serve property in and around Lemon Grove, but would also serve areas around Chula Vista and National City by providing a shorter route for the students to reach State College without going through the congested area of San Diego, although the route south of Market and Ja-

RECEPTION FOR DAN APRÁ

A reception will be given for Rev. and Mrs. Dan Apra Wednesday, at 7:30 p. m. in the home of Rv. and Mrs. Earl Lindsley, 3635 Citrus St., Lemon Grove.

ducing Dr. Odom, chairman Van Gilse asked about the current rumor that a college is in prospect for the land adjacent to Lemon Grove through which the new highway extends.

"There is nothing absolutely definite as yet about the final decision of two colleges who have charters and are right now looking for sites," said Dr. Odom. "We have the matter up with them, and will do everything possible to have them locate here but it will take a few weeks yet."

"Of course the opening up of this choice homestead section will mean a lot to Lemon Grove, as there would be sites for more than a thousand homes, and they would be right at your door and at a time when homes and home-sites are not too plentiful. As a material advantage to any community that of course is important, but I think you will agree with me quite apart from any direct benefits that the way the people of Lemon Grove get behind such projects as this through their association of business leaders, is a community value which cannot be overestimated. It is such a spirit as that which has built and is building our finest cities and towns. And I can assure you that I have felt that the least I can do in this is to give free and clear the 100-foot right of way, and when the question came up that grading had to be provided, I threw that in too. That's the least I can do, for this highway job benefits everyone."

Following the talks a motion was passed that a committee be named to circulate petitions urging prompt action by the supervisors and the following were named: Messrs Johnson, Harvey, O'Connor, White and Magee. District Attorney Don Keller addressed the meeting for the Community Chest and requested the usual cooperation in putting the campaign over.

Charles Baecht, founder and editor of the Lemon Grove Suburbanite was present after an extended vacation trip, and was welcomed back by chairman Van Gilse.

It was announced that Congressman Charles Fletcher will address the meeting of September 28.

Business Women Aid UNESCO With Food, Clothes, etc.

At the regular luncheon meeting of the Business Women's League held last week in the Lemon Grove Congregational Church, members brought food, clothing and other needed articles to be packed for shipment to Europe. This is the first activity planned to assist in the UNESCO program which the United States State Department hopes American individuals and organizations will adopt.

At a former meeting Mrs. Felix Kallis, Cypress St. Lemon Grove, presented direct information from friends and acquaintances formerly in Estonia who were forced by the Russians to flee from their homes and country. "Families became separated and many have not yet found one another," she said. "Russians were trying to get rid of loyal Estonians, especially the educated and skilled working class. These people and their children have been picked up in other countries and put into labor camps. Each person is given a small sum of money every week from which he must completely support himself. This amount is not even sufficient for food."

"Estonia was a country without illiteracy. Everyone, even the poor, unskilled worker, was expected to have at least three languages at his command. The adults now in the camps are doing everything possible to teach the children their arts, sciences, languages, etc., to keep up their cultural standards. They feel that some day America, to them the 'Land of Miracles,' will come to their rescue. Under present conditions there is no possible chance for them ever to be free; but in their hearts they believe we will find a way to help them. Every package that arrives from our country renews their courage and increases their faith in us."

Mrs. Kallis, whose husband is an Estonian, says she has been a house guest in some of their former lovely homes in Estonia. "Now these same people are starving in camps throughout Europe. They are in dire need of bare living necessities. I send packages regularly and get direct answers from them so I know exactly what they are allowed and what is most practical to be sent. Things most needed are: clean, used clothing of all kinds and sizes, shoes, extra shoe strings, thread, buttons, needles, socks, stockings, elastic, tooth brushes soaps. When sending food the following are suggested: 5 lb. bag of sugar, 1 or 3 lb. tin of fat, spam or any tinned solid meat, cocoa in a tin box, coffee (regular grind) in tin, hard candy, sweet chocolate bars, flour, powdered milk, dried milk in tins, dehydrated soups, raisins or any dried fruits without stones (stones take up too much room), macaroni, Kraft cheese dinner, Royal puddings, rice, green split peas and concentrated foods that will keep packed tightly for a month or two."

Mrs. John Hill of Hill's Jewelry, assisted by Mrs. Kallis, will pack and mail any contributions for this project. The first packages will go to Estonians in camps in Germany.

"The Business Women's League hopes that each person in Lemon

MORE BAZAAR PLANS

The Vista La Mesa Women's Club met last Monday and arranged more good things for their ham dinner and bazaar to be held in the La Mesa Masonic Temple October 16. A ham dinner will be served from 5:30 to 7:30. During the evening movies will be shown for the children. And remember, all proceeds will be used for a children's playground.

COUPLE HONORED BY GOLDEN CIRCLE CLASS

Mr. and Mrs. George Sagely were honored last Sunday night by the Golden Circle Class of the Congregational Church. A pot luck supper given in the home of Mr. Isaac Cass was a complete surprise to the Sagelys who have sold their home and nursery on Imperial Avenue in American Homes. They planned to leave Wednesday, September 14, for Van Buren, Arkansas, where they plan to make their future home.

Rededication of Collier Park Set For September 19

The Spring House Garden Club is having a rededication of Collier Park in La Mesa on Sunday, September 19, 4 p. m. All interested in the lovely old park, home of the famous La Mesa Springs, are invited to come. Coffee will be served by the club members to those wishing to bring a picnic supper.

Mrs. Carl Zook, former county president of P. T. A., will be master of ceremonies. Mayor Anderson will give the pre-dedication speech. Margaret Tipton Wheatley, the well known horticultural instructor of the club will thank the various groups that have made this project successful. Mr. Sidney Close will direct a demonstration of old time dancing on the tennis court with two La Mesa and Spring Valley groups participating.

After a short program the public will be invited to join the fun and take part in old-fashioned dancing.

The women, with the help of the city, have reclaimed Collier Park from almost oblivion making it a beauty spot to be enjoyed by all outdoor lovers. The old pipe that carried the spring water to the gutter has been eliminated and a lovely stream falling over moss covered rocks is in the making. Flowers are planted, a lovely campfire circle is ready for a safe outdoor fire to make evening picnics more pleasant. The old spring house is being made into a meeting place for the club and other groups including the Campfire Girls and Girl Scouts.

A timid-looking man was being kidded by merry-makers at the club. "What are you - a man or a mouse?" asked a noisy fellow.

"A man, of course."

"Why are you so positive?" continued the other.

"Because my wife is afraid of a mouse."

Grove will aid in this effort of good will by giving something that may be put into packages. Gifts may be left at the Grove Radio Shop or at Hill's Jewelry. It is hoped that other organizations will co-operate. If proper materials are not available money will be accepted to buy articles to complete a box or for postage, according to the sponsors.

Listen, Parents

By Mac McGee

Thanks for your wonderful response in letters and personal kind words. All I can tell you or discuss with you are the things which I have experienced or which my friends have experienced. I have read numerous books on child psychology and I have talked with dozens of people who have had years of experience in the field and some who have worked only a few months. Those new to the work (and especially those who are young and childless), are full of enthusiasm. But after a few years of practical experience and after they have had three children of their own, does the picture change? And how it changes! Every psychologist to whom I have spoken, who has had five or more years of experience, owns a paddle. Go ahead, ask one.

Well, my column for today was inspired by one of my readers. She was rather perturbed by a remark made by one of her neighbors. The remark was "I'll sure be glad when school starts." Now I am hoping the remark was made in a joking manner. But Mrs. X's reaction was "If she doesn't enjoy her children, why did she have them? Juvenile delinquency would not be so prevalent if parents enjoyed their children; but too many parents think of their children as chores rather than pleasure." Mrs. X, you really have something there. How many of you readers can honestly say that you took Mary shopping or Junior to the ball game and enjoyed yourself? How many of you parents of teen-agers know what your girls and boys enjoy doing, or what they can do well?

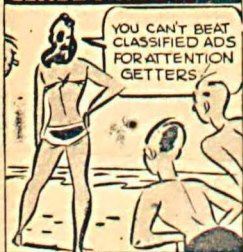

There should come a time when your teen-ager asks you for advice on his future or profession. If you have enjoyed his company and have tried to understand him; if you have built things with him, fished with him, sewed and cooked with her, you will be better prepared to give some good advice. You will be able to lead him or her to a life which he will enjoy. If you have dreaded to go to your work day after day and breathed a sigh of relief when your work was completed night after night, you wouldn't wish that kind of a life on your child. Help him to adjust himself and to find himself in a job he likes doing. I'd rather see my boy make $10.00 per week at a job he likes than to make $100.00 per week on a job he never enjoyed.

Besides you can keep yourself young, happy, alert and healthy if you'll spend a little time with the girls and boys now. PLEASE, don't push yourself on Johnny all the time, when he has other things planned. Find time (preferably at least one day or afternoon each week), which you can devote to him and let him have a LARGE part in planning the event. One of the biggest complaints I hear about parents is exemplified in the following story: "When I ask my dad to take me someplace or to pitch horseshoes, he's too tired but if Mr. Jones asks him to play golf, he's never too tired for that. He's just too tired for me."

Was he talking about you?

Theatre Owner Wins Prize in National Contest

National recognition came to Lemon Grove last week when the "Boxoffice" magazine, the official publication of the Motion Picture industry, awarded John A. Van Gilse, Grove Theatre owner, the special national cash award for ballyhoo in regard to a specific event. The event in which Van Gilse won the award was the first annual "Jalopy Derby" put on by the local Cub Scouts in which 25 local merchants sponsored a local cub scout in buying the necessary material to enable the scout to build a derby car for the annual race. All cars were placed on display in front of the Grove Theatre the day before the race. Merchants also gave prizes to each and every driver of a car and also sponsoring merchants took their little drivers to a banquet after the race.

The Jalopy derby chairman was Harry Dedrick and is scheduled to be an annual event.

A few weeks ago, Mr. Lamont, senior partner in J. P. Morgan & Co., dropped into the little church where he had worshipped as a boy and listened unnoticed while the preacher solicited funds to patch the leaking roof. "Oh Lord, send us succor," was his plea.

When the plate was passed, Mr. Lamont dropped a hundred-dollar bill into it. When the preacher saw it, he sighed happily, and announced: "The sucker has been provided." --Bennett Cerf.

The second vegetable crop in cash value was 2,766 acres in tomatoes of all kinds, from which were harvested 1,428,550.00 lugs of the summer and fall crop, plus 1,600 tons for canning. Total receipts $3,855,040.00.
